"VIVA VILLA" SHOUTED IN RIOTS AT JUAREZ.

Thousands of Mexicans Block Traffic in Anti-American Demonstration.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

EL PASO (Tex.) Jan. 28.—A misunderstanding over quarantine regulations led to a riot at the end of the main international bridge today, which threatened to become a serious and dangerous proposition. Emergency measures taken by the Carranza garrison and a conference between the American and Mexican immigration officials later brought about an arrangement satisfactory to the Mexicans and quiet was restored.

The rioters were mostly Mexican men, employed as servants in El Paso, who resented the placing in effect of an American quarantine law that all persons of uncertain lineage seeking to cross the bridge be given a shower bath and their clothing be disinfected to kill any germ-bearing vermin.

WOMEN INDIGNANT.

Women, stopped by the authorities, returned to Juarez and circulated stories that all were to receive a bath in a gasoline mixture, similar to that which resulted in a fire at the El Paso jail last March, in which more than a score of persons were burned to death. Stories were circulated that American soldiers were photographing the women while bathing and making pictures public.

Indignant women thronged the Mexican side of the bridge, held up street traffic and completely blocked traffic several hours. They shouted defiance, waved controller bars at the American guards of the street car line, scorched against the shade the bridge walls when a movie picture man tried to take them and had a good time generally. Some of the American carmen were rough-handed and several car windows were broken. Mexican men, who attempted to cross to Juarez, had their bags snatched off and thrown to the Rio Grande. Andres Garza, inspector-general of Carranza, consulted, and Soriano Bravo, the United States consul, advised in a motor car that was shoved back by the women, some of whom later shouted, "Viva Villa," when they tried to address the mob. Even the farrish soldiers appeared and pressed the women back from the Pacific. The Villa demonstration seemed to be due to a spirit of mischief.

SHOTS ARE FIRED.

Several shots were heard in succession at this time, but Carranza officers say no one was hurt, despite a detailed story that spread through El Paso that a peon had been killed for shouting, "Long live Villa, death to Carranza." It was said that the shots were intended to cow the mob, but an international conference held at noon it was arranged that the American authorities would recognize bath and sterilization certificates issued by the Mexicans, who have an effective quarantine plant.

Because of the riot the races on the Juarez track were called off and the gambling halls closed. A black flag with skull and cross bones in white, which was displayed by the Carranza cavalrymen at Juarez end of the bridge created excitement among American spectators who were ignorant of its significance. The flag is the divisional flag adopted by Gen. Francisco Murguía on taking charge of the campaign against Villa. Its significance was explained as "Death to Villa," and it was first made public when Murguía's troops recaptured Chihuahua City.

TO RUN SLAV RAILWAYS.

OTTAWA (Ont.) Jan. 28.—George Bury, vice-president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, will leave Montreal soon for Russia to take control of the operation of the Russian railways, it was learned here today. Mr. Bury for many years directed the operation of the Canadian Pacific western lines from Winnipeg.

THE CITY. A "shoe string" strip of discontented opposition was suggested by the leader of a move to annex the city lands beyond Belvedere. An old-time skipper planned to sail a vessel here and carry food to help poor in Lower California.

It was announced opponents will only ask the city to make public the details of the ten-year power purchase contract linked with the proposed $12,000,000 bond issue.

It became known that the Amateur Athletic Union will ask permission to hold a big stadium here.

A mother and son were united after a month of separation. A husband and wife were united after a month of separation. A husband and wife were united after a month of separation.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA. National gas is turned on for San Gabriel after a year's work in placing lines from Brea Canyon for a distance of fourteen miles.

Orange port banker, Delroy Leach, arrived in Pasadena from Los Angeles. He will soon issue a book on the subject of the orange industry.

Many farm houses are spreading over the State and soon there will be many more.

PACIFIC SLOPE. The dry element announces it will support Mayor Gill in the liquor scandal.

Four children slain in bed, father slain in the street.

SEATTLE "DRYS" BACK INDICTED MAYOR GILL.

"We'll See Him Through," Reformers Reply in Liquor Graft Scandal.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SEATTLE (Wash.) Jan. 28.—The "drys" of Seattle will tender their financial support to Mayor Hiram Charles Gill, indicted by the Federal grand jury and charged with graft in the illegal liquor traffic, and the announcement that former Sheriff Hodge will attack the indictments, are the developments of today in the sensational "boozing case," against the Mayor, Police Chief and former Sheriff Hodge.

While nothing definite has yet been decided on, the officers of the dry campaign committee will confer this week, and outline a plan of procedure whereby they expect to be of assistance to the Mayor in his defense.

Laurence Colman, a member of the dry committee, is on Mayor Gill's bond, and J. W. Eflaw, who was chairman of the committee in the last campaign, stood ready to go on the bond had such service been required.

Answering a direct inquiry as to the intentions of the dry committee, Mr. Eflaw said: "We expect to see Mayor Gill through his trouble. The reason which the people I represent will see through is because he has done everything we asked him to do for Mayor in the matter of law enforcement."

"We are appreciative of his co-operation and we all realize that this is the time to stand by him. We have not yet formally adopted any plan in reference to Mayor Gill, but the matter of his defense will be taken up with the members of the committee soon."

GILL WANTS QUICK TRIAL.

Mayor Gill Sunday reiterated his statement that he would accept the indictment and stand for a quick trial. He would ask for an immediate trial for himself and Chief of Police Beckingham, and that he would not attack the indictment on technical grounds.

The plan of defense for Mayor Gill and Chief Beckingham has not yet been arranged. Whether their defense will be conducted by the law firm of Gill, Hoyt and Frye or whether some other attorney will be engaged is the point that remains unsettled. The plan probably will be determined after Mayor Gill has conferred with his law partners and other confidential friends.

"I shall petition Judge Neterer and the United States District Court for an immediate trial," said the Mayor today. "Of course, under the Federal proceedings, as the United States court is not compelled to grant separate trials in cases where a collective conspiracy is charged, but I shall petition the court to grant separate trials in cases where the others may see fit to follow. I shall demand trial. The charges are infamous and plain justice requires that I should be tried."

He said he was confident that no jury of sane and righteous citizens of this community will ever bring in a verdict of guilty against myself and the others named in the indictment.

PERSHING GETS ORDER WITHDRAW FROM MEXICO

Announcement Made by War Department in Washington that Troops are Coming Out and Men Begin Early to Evacuate Colonia Dublan — Movement Expected to Occupy About a Week.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Orders for the withdrawal of American troops from Mexico were officially announced today by the War Department, with the statement that the northward movement of Gen. Pershing's men began early this morning with the evacuation of Colonia Dublan.

The American expedition went into Mexico in pursuit of Villa following the massacre of seventeen Americans at the village of Columbus, N. M., in March, 1914. Secretary Baker issued the following announcement:

"Gen. Pershing has been ordered to bring his troops out of Mexico. The movement is to be an immediate one, and is probably already under way."

TO END IN A WEEK.

Later advice to the department said that the troops already had begun to evacuate Colonia Dublan, 110 miles from the border, where they have been concentrating during the past few weeks. The last American soldier is expected to recross the border in about a week.

No official information is at hand as to whether Villa or Carranza troops will occupy the territory left vacant by the Americans, but the belief is strong here that Villa, who is credited with at least 8000 well armed men and who is now said to be at least four times as strong as when the American troops went across the border, will make a desperate effort to take the territory.

Two other phases of the Mexican problem on which interest centers now are the disposition of more than 10,000 militia still on the border, and the sending of Ambassador Fletcher to his post at Mexico City. The latter has been delayed, but has been reached in either of these questions.

GLAYS SMASH FORWARD TWO MILES IN BUKOWINA

Three Violent German Attacks on the Riga Front are Beaten Back.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

LONDON, Jan. 28.—The Russian army smashed forward on a front of nearly two miles on both sides of the Kimpulung-Jacobson road, in Bukowina, yesterday. Along the whole line of attack, according to Petrograd, the German and Austrian fortified positions were broken through, and many prisoners and quantities of booty were captured.

South of this region, in the Meste Canesti sector of the Golden Bystritsa River, the Czar's troops were also successful, driving the enemy back to the east bank of the stream, Berlin admits.

On the Riga front, three violent German assaults along the Kalmensk-Chok road, to the west of Riga. The attack was repulsed and the enemy fled in disorder. Two hours later the Germans launched another attack on the same front, again being repulsed. After artillery preparation the enemy assumed the offensive against our troops, occupying positions six versts northwest of the village of Kalmensk, but the attack was arrested by our fire.

"During the night of January 27, after artillery preparation, small enemy detachments attacked our posts on the River Shara in the region of the Baranovich-Luninets railway line, but were driven back to their trenches."

"On the same day one of our airplanes, while returning from a reconnaissance, was attacked by a German plane. After some machine gun firing our airplane caught fire and fell in the region of the River Shara, in front of our wire entanglements. The bodies of the aviator and observer were brought in the same day."

"South of Brody the enemy launched an attack against our advance guard, but as the result of our fire and counter-attack, he fled back in disorder to his trenches, suffering heavy losses."

"North of Kiriababa an enemy attack was repulsed."

"Rumanian front: Our detachments after artillery preparation assumed the offensive on both sides of the Kimpulung-Jacobson road, and after a stubborn fight broke through the enemy's fortified positions on a front of three versts. Prisoners and booty were taken, the extent of which is being ascertained."

"A German airplane dropped bombs on the station at Zandere on the Alexandrovskaya railway."

"On January 19, the day of Epiphany, in the region of Labusy on the River Shara, southeast of Baranovich, the chaplain of one of our divisions, Archpriest Father Kholmogorov, with a cross and holy water, made a tour of our front line trenches, blessing the troops. Although the brave priest did not hesitate in his ministrations and both he and a priest, a private, accompanying him, were mortally wounded, the latter dying an hour later."

"When ambulances men arrived, Father Kholmogorov refused to have his wounds dressed, requesting the surgeons first to attend to the private. Disregarding his heavy loss of blood he pronounced his blessing on the dying soldier, lying near him, and only when the private was carried away did the priest allow himself to be attended to. In the evening of the same day, Father Kholmogorov passed away in the dressing station of the division."

GERMAN WITHDRAWAL.

[BY WIRELESS AND A. P.]
BERLIN, Jan. 28 (via Statesville).—On account of superior Russian pressure directed against the Teuton lines in the Meste Canesti sector on the Golden Bystritsa front in Rumania, says today's German official statement, the Austro-German forces yesterday were compelled to withdraw to positions nearer the opposite bank of the river. Russian attacks against the Germans on both sides of the River As in the Riga sector, were repulsed with heavy Russian losses.

An official statement issued this evening by the German headquarters staff reads:

"On the west bank of the Meuse several French attacks against Height 304 failed."

"On the Zlota Lipa River (Galicia) Turkish troops repeatedly repulsed Russian attacks."

BRITISH STATEMENT.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]
LONDON, Jan. 28.—An official statement issued tonight by the British press bureau reads:

"During Thursday night the enemy renewed attempts to recapture lost ground, but was repulsed with severe losses. Early Friday we resumed the offensive and under cover of an intense bombardment recaptured the trenches which the Turks had occupied by Thursday's counter-attack."

"On Friday afternoon the enemy launched two violent counter-attacks. Both were completely broken by our artillery and machine gun fire with the severest losses of the enemy."

"In the trenches captured by one of our brigades, which suffered only 200 casualties, we found 400 Turkish corpses. We now are consolidating our gains."

TRAGEDY.

China, February 13, 1914, while that liner was on a voyage from Shanghai to San Francisco, and seized thirty-eight Austrian and German subjects.

The commander of the Laurentic, Capt. Reginald Norton, is among the survivors. He was appointed about six months ago to the command of this steamer, which was commissioned for patrol service in November, 1914.

BRITONS TO GO ON RATION SYSTEM.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]
LONDON, Jan. 28, 11:05 a.m.—William C. Anderson, Labor member of Parliament, speaking today in the House of Commons, said he was giving away no secret in stating that the population of the United Kingdom would be a very early date be put under a ration system.

In the first two years of the war the Laurentic was engaged in doing patrol duty in the Far East, but several months ago returned to European waters. While in the Pacific the auxiliary cruiser held up and boarded the American steamship

WIND, COLD AND FROST NEARLY STOPS FIGHTING

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Jan. 29.—The increasing cold is progressively hampering and sometimes halting movements both on land and on sea in Europe. Several Danish and Swedish harbors in the Cattagat and Baltic are becoming choked with ice and there is a great quantity of ice around the Skaw, reaching to a very considerable distance seaward. Some small vessels are icebound off Denmark, and the Danish lightships have been withdrawn. The Great Belt, Little Belt and Sound are all threatened with complete closure. It is reported that the Southern Sound is already frozen over.

The Times' correspondent at Rumanian headquarters, writing under date of January 24, quotes a Rumanian general as saying that operations were impossible owing to the weather. The correspondent says that Germans recently taken prisoner were wearing summer outfits and that some of them died while marching to internment camps.

A piercing frost, accompanied by wind, has now continued for many days in the British Isles. There has been an exceptional snowfall in Ireland, exceeding the record of twenty-five years.

EARLY-MORNING BANDITS BUSY.

Two youthful bandits early this morning held up at the points of their revolvers F. B. Lowe, driver of a rent automobile, and, after taking his money, drove away with his machine. The hold-up occurred at Washington street and Western avenue, where Lowe had taken them after they rented his car from his stand at No. 454 South Broadway.

Attacked by two men near the corner of First street and Santa Fe avenue early this morning, Lester K. Hough, a bookkeeper living at the Christian Mission on East Fifth street, was badly beaten and robbed of $27 in cash. The two thugs, according to Mr. Hough, sprang upon him from behind and beat him about the head with clubs.

Armed with revolvers, two negro bandits early this morning held up and robbed J. J. Winslow, a rancher, as he stood in the doorway of his hotel at Fifth street and Central avenue. They secured $36 and fled.

Roy Hovia, 13 years of age, of No. 1421 West Forty-fifth street, and Milton Martie, also 13, living at No. 1428 West Forty-fifth street, were arrested early this morning by Patrolman Baldwin near their homes and charged with burglary. The two boys, according to the police, stole a large amount of goods from a grocery store at No. 4501 Normandie avenue and were about to run away from home in an automobile taken from young Hovia's uncle.

WELCOME TO GEN. SMUTS.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]
LONDON, Jan. 28.—A telegram to Reuter's from Pretoria, South Africa, under date of Friday, states that Gen. Jan Christian Smuts was accorded a magnificent public welcome upon his arrival in Pretoria on that day. The streets were decorated and crowded with people from all parts of the Transvaal.

Gen. Smuts, replying to addresses, said that he had been surprised beyond measure at the splendid co-operation of the mixed forces of his command and their wonderful work in the campaign, which "perhaps was the hardest in the history of the world."

Gen. Smuts added that what gave him the greatest pleasure was that the young South African troops were composed of gentlemen, declaring: "I never have seen better-behaved troops in my life. If you want a certificate of their character, go to the numerous German women and children throughout that barbarous country and ask them what they think of the South Africans; they will tell you."

SPAIN DISAPPROVES WILSON SPEECH.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]
MADRID, Jan. 28 (via Paris).—Comment in the Madrid press on President Wilson's speech before the Senate continues to be unfavorable. El Liberal says that the President has looked on at the war up to the present as at a boxing competition, and that no man "possessed of the most elementary sense of justice would advocate peace without victory."

The military critic of the Correspondencia de Espana remarks that the appeal to neutrals, which figured in the first note of the President, is absent from his new utterance. This writer interprets the President's words as meaning that the United States alone has the right to play a part in the restoration of peace. He adds: "How can President Wilson, who urged the collaboration of all American peoples, consider alliance between groups of European nations so dangerous?"

GERMAN EXPLOSION KILLS TWO.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]
AMSTERDAM (via London) Jan. 29.—The Dusseldorff General Anzeiger reports that a fire in a chemical works near Cologne on Saturday caused an explosion of a great quantity of explosives. Two persons were killed, two severely injured and several slightly hurt, while considerable damage was done.

THREE KILLED IN WRECK.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]
MEMPHIS (Tenn.) Jan. 28.—Three passengers were killed and more than a score injured, when a St. Louis Southwestern Railroad engine collided with the rear car of a Rock Island passenger train, eastbound from Little Rock, Ark., to Memphis, late last night in a dense fog at Mounds, Ark., near here.

TWO SHOT IN BOHEMIAN TAVERN.

In a shooting affray in the Bohemian Tavern, No. 227 East Fourth street, last night, two Hungarians, Max Merhewlecks and Peter Ruchler of No. 312 Winston street, were shot by a man who made his escape. He is believed to be a Frenchman who has been seen frequently around this cafe, but the police last night were unable to secure a good description of the man, and his victims were unable to give information. Ruchler was only slightly injured, but Merhewlecks may not recover. The bullet entered at the waist line and remained in his body. Both victims were taken to the Receiving Hospital.

Democratic Revenue Measure in House Today.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—With less than thirty working days remaining in the life of the Sixty-fourth Congress, the Democratic Steering Committee of the Senate decided today to hold daily sessions of the Senate from 11 o'clock in the morning until 10 o'clock at night, beginning Thursday, February 1.

STEEERING COMMITTEE.
The plan of the Steering Committee is reported to be an experimental one. Owing to the unusual opposition from one source or another to nearly every pending administration measure, some of the leaders believe it would be wise to call up the various bills to see just what progress might be made on them. It is expected that the opposition is so unyielding as to make their passage before March 4 impossible.

The British army has been increased by 100,000 men. This is a very important step in the war. It shows that the British are determined to win. The German army is also being increased. This is a very serious situation. The Allies are sure that they will be able to defeat the Germans soon.

Democratic Revenue Measure in House Today.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—With less than thirty working days remaining in the life of the Sixty-fourth Congress, the Democratic Steering Committee of the Senate decided today to hold daily sessions of the Senate from 11 o'clock in the morning until 10 o'clock at night, beginning Thursday, February 1.

STEEERING COMMITTEE.
The plan of the Steering Committee is reported to be an experimental one. Owing to the unusual opposition from one source or another to nearly every pending administration measure, some of the leaders believe it would be wise to call up the various bills to see just what progress might be made on them. It is expected that the opposition is so unyielding as to make their passage before March 4 impossible.

CANADA WILL HELP EMPIRE TO FINISH.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.
NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—Canada's determination to aid the British empire and its allies to continue the war to a triumphant finish was voiced by Sir Thomas White, Canadian minister of finance and president of the Canadian parliament, at a dinner of the Canadian Society here last night.

I CURE
PILES
and all Rectal Diseases
WITHOUT AN OPERATION

For twenty-five years I have been curing diseases of the rectum and lower bowel. During that time my experience as hospital and railroad surgeon, as college lecturer and professor, has enabled me to develop a method that is superior to others. I cure without surgery and my patients are not confined in bed and seldom lose a moment's time from their business.

My method is not a "home cure" or a "correspondence treatment" but it is an application of skilled treatments administered under the most rigid antiseptic conditions in my office.

SANTA MONICA MINISTER CURED.
This is to certify that Dr. C. H. White has cured me of a distressing hemorrhoidal ailment of 25 years' duration. His method of treatment is effective, but not severe. He has the appliances, the knowledge and the skill born of many years of specialization in this fruitful source of physical disease. He accomplishes all his claims in his advertisement, and at reasonable expense.

WELL KNOWN SPRING STREET PRINTER CURED
For five years I was practically incapacitated from attending to business by Protruding Hemorrhoids. Dr. White cured me without pain.

OLD RAILROAD MAN CURED
For more than ten years I suffered from chronic Diarrhoea and Ulceration. I was in a semi-invalid condition. Dr. White cured me.

RIVERA RANCHER CURED
I suffered for fifteen years with painful, protruding, bleeding Hemorrhoids. Dr. C. H. White cured me. His treatment completely cured me of my distressing ailment. I do not let a chance pass of telling others of my wonderful cure, and it is a pleasure to each person whom I have advised to visit Dr. White who completely cured by him.

TONIC FOR GROWING GIRLS

Most growing girls need a tonic, especially during the years when they are springing up most rapidly and their appetites are most feeble.

A diet of tea and candy will ruin any girl's chances of future happiness. A plentiful and scientifically correct diet is the only way to keep a girl healthy and strong. It is the only way to keep her from becoming a weakling.

There has been no export of grain for some time. The Allies are being permitted a free import of grain, presumably in connection with the arrangement made for the export of large quantities of agricultural produce to Britain.

The government's requisitioning of ships for the transport of troops and other war necessities has been very prosperous, and the shipping movement at the Dutch ports is still only a fraction of its normal volume. Holland is preparing for a future. A bill has just been introduced in the Second Chamber for the opening of the waterway leading to Rotterdam to the sea, while a new canal has been introduced a day or two ago.

Has Balfour Spiked the Guns of Prussian Logic?

Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, Balfour, in his note supplementing the Entente's reply to President Wilson's request for a statement of peace terms, declares that he does "not believe peace can be durable if it be not based upon the success of the Allied cause."

Apparently, one of the objects of this new communication was to convince the American public that the changes in the map of Europe suggested in the previous note of the Entente Allies would prevent future wars.

On the other hand, the pro-German "Fatherland," of New York, dismisses the Allies' terms as under no circumstances the possible basis for permanent peace and holds up the "principles of nationality" for ridicule.

In THE LITERARY DIGEST for January 27th, the leading article deals with Mr. Balfour's note and by quoting the opinions of editorial observers of widely differing sentiment, reflects public opinion in this country upon the subject in a most comprehensive way.

Among other articles of unusual interest in this week's issue are:

Canadian, French, and German Papers Rap President Wilson

Express Belief That His Writings Do Not Represent Real Public Opinion in United States

Convicting a German Consul-General of Bomb-Plots

What the German Press Thinks of the Entente's Reply to Wilson

Keep Your Finger on the Pulse of Public Opinion

There is only one sure way to find out what the people think, either in America or elsewhere, and that is to compare the utterances of all the periodicals on any given question, and then to draw your own conclusions. This is a practical impossibility for any single individual, but it is done thoroughly and painstakingly for you each week in THE LITERARY DIGEST.

COUGH CAUSES DUAL TRAGEDY.

Maddened Man Kills ex-Wife and Ends Own Life.

As Woman Plans to Take Sick Child to Arizona.

Victim's Lips Made Silencer for Fatal Revolver.

Beryl Rawlins' cough, that told of a fever at dusk and a sweat at night, was the cause and the knell of a double tragedy early yesterday morning. When her mother, Mrs. Mollie Wells, was shot and killed by her divorced husband, James H. Nelman, who then slew himself with the same weapon.

Motherhood's first law, that the offspring must be protected, made Mrs. Wells the victim of the mid-night homicide, where a houseful of sleepers heard two explosions and drowsily turned in their beds with a sleep curse upon noisy automobiles.

It was going to take her daughter to Arizona, Naomi Hoglund, not let her. They had been divorced two years and Mrs. Wells had married George A. Wells, an engineer working on San Bernardino.

Since the divorce Nelman had frequently troubled his former wife. Once he threatened to kill her and she appealed to the police, with the result that Nelman was arrested in an attempt to work six months on the chain gang. He drank heavily. Six months ago he again threatened to kill her when they reached to meet in the Harbor district.

CHILD IS ILL. Recently Beryl Rawlins, 6 years old and her daughter by the first of three husbands, fell victim to a severe cold. It gradually gripped the bronchial region. The doctors said the mother to take her daughter to the healing dunes of Arizona. Friday she took her little girl out of school. Yesterday she was to have left for Arizona.

Nelman heard of her intention. Mrs. Wells was sitting up late in the boardroom at No. 311 North Broadway, waiting for the coming of her husband from San Bernardino as his weekly visit. But instead of the welcome arrival of Mr. Wells came Nelman.

"I hear you're going to leave town," he said. "I am going to take Beryl to Arizona. It's her lungs, and that is our only chance to save her."

"I told you before, if you ever leave town, I'll kill you, and see right here!"

"Nelman," said Mrs. Wells, "I have just done you. You don't mean anything to me, and no other man does, compared to what that little girl means to me. You told me you were going to kill me this minute. I still would go ahead with my plans to take my little girl to Arizona. You can't scare me and you can't stop me."

So much of the conversation was heard by the landlady, Mrs. J. M. Clark, and other roomers retired. The two, Mrs. Wells and Nelman, were seated in an empty room on the hallway that served as a reception room.

DEBATE GOES ON. Midnight came and they were still talking. Mr. Wells did not arrive. He had been detained by his work. The maddened Nelman refused to go. He cursed and bleated. And he showed her a gun. He had been employed as a watchman at Vernon, and he lived with his son by a former wife at Thirty-third street and Santa Fe avenue. Always he was armed.

In an adjoining room, with only a shallow door as a barrier, slept Beryl Rawlins, the night made a tor-ment by continued noise. And when Nelman demanded the mother remain here, always came the sound of those coughs and the mother became adamant. She would go to Arizona.

The crisis came. She refused to yield to Nelman's demands that she remain. She arose to go. He pulled her back into a chair.

"It is that child or I," he said. "A late lodger came in at the time, and heard the question. Without hesitation the mother said, 'My child, or anything in this world—my child.'"

"That's the fool woman of it," said Nelman. "That's being a mother," said Mrs. Wells, 32 years old, but old, old in trouble.

"You won't go! You won't leave me! You're the only woman I love, and you won't leave me, child or no child!"

"I am going to bed."

LIPS FOR SILENCER. As she started to rise, Nelman drew the gun from his pocket. He forced the muzzle into her mouth, making a silence of the mother's own lips. Then he shot her.

She was dead on the floor. He knelt beside her for an instant. Then he put the gun to his temple and shot himself. He lay dead beside her.

From the room beyond the door came the harsh cough of the little girl. Lodgers heard the explosions, listened for an instant, heard Beryl Rawlins' cough, and returned to their sleep.

In the morning Mrs. Clark went into the hallway at 1 o'clock to open the doors. She came upon the bodies. The police and the coroner's office were notified.

Attendees came from the Butte morgue to take the dead away. As they lifted the body of the woman, they were halted by the sound of a barometer of coughing in the next room, and a little girl crying wailing, "Mamma, it hurts so. Where are you, mamma? Mamma!" and then a long wail of distress.

Mr. Wells was awakened at San Bernardino and a telephone message told of the tragedy. And the little girl with the cough went to the home of her mother, Mrs. Wells, 32 years old, but old, old in trouble.

ALLEGED GANG LEADER TAKEN.

And is Identified as One of "Milkman" Robbers.

Two More of Suspected Ring Now Widely Sought.

Details of Motor Raids are Given in Confession.

Raymond L. Shales, a young chauffeur and alleged leader of the predatory gangsters who have terrorized night motorists for three months, was arrested yesterday by Detective Fitzgerald. He was identified as a bandit by a number of his alleged victims, but has not confessed.

He was arrested while asleep in the home of Caleb Ensign, No. 416 North Westmoreland street. The adopted son of Mr. Ensign, Bert Ensign, is sought as the accomplice of Shales. Mr. Ensign adopted Bert when the latter was three years old and the name of his parents is unknown.

Another alleged member of the suspected gang who is still missing is Frank Arnall, the comrade of Douglas Griffin, who confessed he was one of the motorist bandits. Arnall is now said to be in the north.

The quartette, it is alleged, stole between thirty and forty automobiles and perpetrated twenty-three known hold-ups. They are said to be the "milkman" bandits.

Griffin related alleged methods of operation yesterday. He said he and Arnall would sleep in a machine and Shales and Ensign another. Then they would go to opposite sections of the city and work toward a meeting point. After the night motorists disappeared from the streets and the pedestrians became few, they would sleep in the machines until milkmen began their morning rounds. Then they would prey upon the milkmen.

Griffin says he does not know how many men he held up. Detective Fitzgerald who linked Griffin with the motorist banditry with only a pawn ticket for a clue, went yesterday to the barn on the San Fernando road where he was said to be trapped. Someone had awed the machine.

A complete description of Arnall and Ensign is in Detective Fitzgerald's possession and a State-wide search for the two is being made. John Ortega and Richard Crawford, the film cowboys who were arrested Sunday at one of the motorist roundups, were released yesterday when it was shown they had no part in the raid.

Efforts will be made today to secure Mrs. Hoglund's release and find employment that will enable her to reach her husband without "riding the beam."

CHILD IS BURNED. Bonfire Sets Clothing Alight; Rescuer's Nerve Saves Her.

Louise Virtila, 7 years old, No. 502 South Glass street, was seriously burned yesterday when her clothes were set on fire by a bonfire about which she was playing.

Her gingham dress was blazing when A. P. Bernas, No. 504 South Glass street, heard her screams and realized her peril. He was wearing an overcoat. He snatched the burning girl into his arms, wrapped her in a blanket and rushed her to the hospital.

One side is deeply burned but her recovery is anticipated.

AFTER NINE YEARS. Huntington Beach Utility Owner Gets Authority to Raise Rates.

The State Railroad Commission Saturday issued an order fixing rates to be charged by S. H. Finley, owner of the East Side Water Company, for water served to residents of Huntington Beach.

The order fixes a minimum meter rate of $1 a month. Mr. Finley has been operating at a loss for nine years, it appears. He supplies about 100 consumers in the Vista del Mar tract in Huntington Beach, and has an investment of $4550.

THE CITY OF LOS ANGELES is now and for many years past has been diverting from the river below the point where the Big Tejuca Canyon waters flow into it, substantially all the water, and has been distributing it in Los Angeles. Los Angeles denies that the Tejuca Canyon waters are its property, but on the contrary asserts that the company has been taking and selling this water in violation of the rights of Los Angeles.

What Is Home Without an Heir!

This is a subject that has a place in all minds in all times.

And it naturally directs thought as to the various things that should be done during that wonderful period of expectancy.

It is a subject that should be considered by every man, woman, and child, and it is a subject that should be considered by every man, woman, and child, and it is a subject that should be considered by every man, woman, and child.

VISITING THE POSTS.

Department Officers of the Grand Army of the Republic Guests of Long Beach Veterans this Afternoon—Schedule for the Week.

A. E. Leavitt, Department Commander of the Grand Army of the Republic of California and Nevada; John Roberts, Assistant Adjutant-General, and C. H. Haskins, Senior Vice-Commander, will make an official visit to the Long Beach Post and Woman's Relief Corps this afternoon. A public meeting will be held at the Auditorium on the pier at 2 o'clock. An invitation is extended to all veterans of the United States and vicinity, who can do so to attend this meeting.

Tomorrow afternoon the department officers will visit the post at Whittier, and they will be in Pomona on Thursday, for an afternoon meeting. On Friday evening they will visit Stanton Post and Corps, and Bartlett-Logan Post and Corps on Saturday afternoon.

On Saturday evening there will be a campfire at Patriot's Hall, in which all the posts and corps will participate, and which will be open to the public.

IMPETUS IS GIVEN WELL-KNOWN MAN'S MAYORALTY CAMPAIGN.

The Owen McAleer-for-Mayor Club held a meeting at No. 311 South Spring street Saturday afternoon and effected a permanent organization. There were ninety present and several speeches were made.

Willard Goodwin, representing the West Adams Republican Club, presented a resolution endorsing Mr. McAleer's candidacy.

The following gentlemen were named as a nominating committee: George W. Prince, W. W. Mines, Dr. Ralph Hagan and J. L. MacWilliams. Dr. Hagan was appointed permanent chairman of the committee on organization.

The club was effected in response to a popular demand that Mr. McAleer stand as a candidate.

Francis Edgar White, who acted as chairman of yesterday's meeting, will manage Mr. McAleer's campaign. The next meeting will be held Friday evening at 8 o'clock at 311 South Spring street.

GUEST AT PORT SCOTT. Miss Adele C. Vance, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Champ S. Vance, is the guest for a few weeks of Capt. and Mrs. Louis F. Chappeler, of Ft. Winfield Scott. A dance in compliment to her was given Friday evening, the night of her arrival.

FIND BUSINESS OUTLOOK ALLURING IN SOUTHLAND.

J. FIRESTONE, vice-president, and S. O. Carkhuff, secretary, of the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company of Akron, O., who arrived at the Maryland yesterday to attend the opening of the Los Angeles branch of the company, are impressed by the soundness of the business situation in Los Angeles and Southern California.

"I feel well acquainted with Southern California," said Mr. Firestone. "I have spent a number of winters here, and I have watched with interest the growth of this region. It has become a center of progressiveness and business development as in the past few months."

Mr. Firestone said that the company has been very successful in its business here, and that it is now planning to expand its operations in the Southland.

Mr. Carkhuff spoke of the solid growth of industries in Southern California.

TO WIDEN MARKET FOR OUR FRUITS.

California Fruit Growers' Exchange will Open Sales Branch Here and Work with Wholesale Retailers and Club Women for Benefit of Orchardists.

The California Fruit Growers' Exchange will open a central sales branch in Los Angeles and will cooperate with dealers in building up their business in the best class of fruit grown in the groves and orchards of California.

This branch will be further fostered by a widespread advertising campaign in the local newspapers and will also work in harmony with the Southern California Retail Grocers' Association.

The result of this move is expected to be to the advantage of both the consumer and the citrus and other fruit interests and will create a far wider market for the products of California's groves and orchards.

The Federated Women's Clubs are interested in the project and have given valuable assistance to the grocers in bringing about the present plan.

The women's clubs, the Southern California Retail Grocers' Association and the California Fruit Growers' Exchange are a unit for the promotion of California Orange Day.

This day has become a national institution and has been one of the big factors in advertising California's matchless citrus product.

Services Yesterday. THE PREACHERS.

GO INTO THE HIGHWAYS AND HEDGES SEEKING SINNERS.

That the modern church must be militant church, attacking every form of evil, if it is to fulfill its mission and gain the respect of humanity was the declaration of one of the Los Angeles preachers yesterday.

Another told of the necessity for the church making a vigorous fight on the growing divorce evil, and a third declared that there is no doubt about the final outcome in a battle with God on our side. The sermon topics were widely different, but all held to the purpose of the uplift of humanity and its better exemplification of the Christian ideal.

REV. S. M. BERNARD. PICO HIGH CHURCH. REV. S. M. Bernard preached in Pico Heights Christian Church in the morning. He was assisted by Rev. S. M. Bernard, who was a companion in the "Modern Church."

He said, in part: "I have made a perfect man and a perfect woman to start this world with. He made a church at Jerusalem as perfect as He could out of the fallible human beings that He had put into its membership."

OREGON'S POET IN PASADENA.

Delroy Getchell of Medford in the Southland.

Writes for Pleasure and for His Friends.

Devotes a Few Minutes Each Day to Rhyming.

PASADENA, Jan. 28.—Oregon's poet, Delroy Getchell of Medford, who is a visitor at the hotel, believes that two minutes a day devoted conscientiously to poetry or the contemplation of poetic verse will give a helpful lesson to the poet.

He is studying the science of poetry and accumulating a fortune in the art of verse. He is at the same time mastered the art of verse.

"Drama" and "Whisper" are two of his latest poems. He has been writing poetry merely for pleasure and as a matter of self-improvement for many years. He has been in a book form the accumulated product of his two minutes a day, devoted to the muse.

"The many busy people put off the acquisition of culture vainly hoping that some day they will be leisure," Mr. Getchell declared. "It is remarkable how much can be accomplished by taking just two minutes out of every twenty-four for a little journey into the realm of thought."

"Some people there may be who do not mean that this should be the end of poetic considerations. At least a few minutes a day the poet should get as far away from money as possible. The baker is away from his bread as possible as the clothier as far away from his clothes as possible."

Mr. Getchell was accompanied to Pasadena by his wife and two children. He believes that good motor cars are binding. California and the poet are closer together.

The following lines are from "Drama":

Deeper chord need never be dumb
Because old days were dervelt;
I will can touch new days that
Add chronic grievings interdict.

And shape and say where fancy roam
And guide and guard their eager flight;
To some high creation for a home
Or be enslaved in slums of night.

And all may dream a perfect dream
Of heaven, the land or the sea,
Thought and soul may rise supreme,
Surmounting, unconquered and free."

HIKERS SEEK NEW RECORD.

Plan Walk to Top of Mt. San Luis and See How Quick They Can Make It.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.
SAN LUIS OBISPO, Jan. 28.—Members of the "Old Gentlemen's Club," composed of pioneers, noted as hikers, are planning a race in the near future to the summit of Mt. San Luis, which rises to an elevation of 2000 feet, within a mile and three-quarters of the heart of San Luis Obispo's business district.

The average time to walk from the city's center to the summit of the nearby peak is fifty minutes. According to Patrick Fitzpatrick, pioneer hotel man, the climb has been made in eighteen minutes.

This remarkable record was made by Frank Schellenberger, who is now in the electrical business in Los Angeles. He is a comparatively young man, however, and is said to have run most of the way. In the coming contest running is to be forbidden.

IMPROVEMENT COST A QUARTER OF MILLION DOLLARS.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.
POMONA, Jan. 28.—Two hundred and fifty thousand dollars' worth of improvement completed and dedicated to public use here today, when the Southern Counties Gas Company turned into the arteries of the Pomona Valley gas distributing system a supply of natural gas which was brought in from the Brea oil fields. This gas will be served to thirteen towns in the northern district of the Pomona distribution system. The principal communities which will receive the benefit of it are Pomona, Claremont, Chino, Lodi, San Dimas, Covina, Glendora, Azusa, Monrovia, Arcadia, and South San Anita.

Early in the fall the company laid four-inch mains to connect Pomona and San Dimas, and then hooked Covina in with the San Dimas and Glendora systems, so the entire district is now connected with the Pomona distribution system. The company then laid fourteen miles of eight-inch pipe between this city and Brea Canyon, to connect with the gas wells near there. Forty-five carloads of heavy pipe were used in this extension and the contract for the job amounted to about $180,000.

The natural gas supply will bring to the consumers in this district a quality of gas which runs about 1100 heat units per foot, while the artificial gas supply which has been used here in the past afforded only about 550 heat units per foot. A new rate schedule for local consumers, and the reductions which are provided for, together with the additional heat units contained in the natural gas supply, will probably make it possible for domestic consumers to clip their monthly bills at least one-fourth, the gas people believe.

With the coming of natural gas the company expects to branch out into the rural districts and furnish energy for farm power. The irrigation water pumping business is the one which stands for almost unlimited development. At the company reaches out to distribute farm power it expects that many ranches will avail themselves of the opportunity to illuminate their homes and cook with natural gas.

The idea of using natural gas in the rural districts is already catching on. Several poultrymen in this vicinity are arranging to heat their brooders with gas this spring. The George Junior Republic at Chino intends to use gas wherever heat and power are needed in the institution. One of the principal uses to which it will be put there will be that of burning brick.

A move has already been started at Lodi and San Dimas to establish improvement districts this spring and install gas-burning systems of ornamental street lamps.

WAYS OF WOMAN.

NEW LEADING LADY CHARMS IN MOROCCO PRODUCTION.

By Henry Christen Warnack.

Ever must have been a very talented and ingenious lady. The main entrance to the principal pleasure resort of her day had not been closed for an hour and the paint on the sign "no trespassing" was not dry before she had discovered "A Woman's Way." From that hour until this, the first lady's recipe has been sedulously practiced, and no man has understood the method thereof.

About ten years ago one Thompson Buchanan was looking for something new to put into a play and this was what he hit upon. Grace George tried it upon the country at large and it went very well. This McGrane gave it a whirl at the old Belasco seven years back, and it was a complete success.

This I remember vividly for good reason. A popular young man of my acquaintance at the time was by way of becoming a matinee idol, and his domestic young wife was not a little jealous of a dashing young widow. The wife and one of her girl friends fell to talking it over and they hit upon "A Woman's Way." They invited the widow to supper at the matinee idol's home one evening, and the next day they had her for lunch. Then they took her for the week-end.

Finally my friend complained to his wife with great petulance. "For heaven's sake, Margaret, can't I turn around in my own home, without stumbling over that woman?"

Yes sir, he was completely cured. "A Woman's Way" was the right medicine, although I know a lady who says that the prescription calls for a large amount of self-control on the part of the wife.

CHARMING ACTRESS.

It is upon just such a story that this bright little comedy of three acts is written, and Marion Stanton may come and go, but I doubt if we ever had or will have a sweeter, brighter one than Miss Bertha Mann, the certainly charming and seemingly capable new leading woman at the Morocco, where "A Woman's Way" is being staged this week.

Miss Mann has reached the stage of clear-headedness while still young enough to be beautiful. She has the fresh coloring and naïveté of a Paris Ring and the insolence and cleverness of Emily Stevens. She has more feeling than Miss Rine and not quite the velvet finish and blue steel force of Miss Stevens. If she can appear to the same advantage in her future productions here, as she unquestionably does in "A Woman's Way," she will rank as the best leading woman we have had in local stock in four years, with the exception of Miss Servos and Miss Rambeau. She has fascination, and while the present role does not require it, I hope she has some.

SMOOTH PRESENTATION.

The entire cast is happy in its performance and the performance is unusually smooth. Miss Audell Higgins scores a distinct triumph as Mrs. Blakemore, the widow, who reminds us of the lady blackmailer in the "High Cost of Living." Miss Anna Lockhart gives us another finished characterization in the role of Mrs. Livingston.

Also the men are all excellent. I may be pardoned for mentioning them as they are considered a necessary adjunct in theatrical production, as the background of resistance for feminine stars. Richard Dix as the wavering husband, William Quinn as Mr. Morris, Warner Baxter as Oliver Whitney and Davitt Butler as the reporter, advance the plot with proper spiritiveness, and Harry Duffield makes of the old general a character of charm.

That excellent actor Mr. Joseph Anton should be allowed to appear as blacksmith or president in his next incarnation, as he has suffered enough as a butler in his present existence, and Mr. Dix should become a florist.

Serial.

MODERN YELLOWBACK

SOME STRIKING FEATURE PLAYS ON PICTURE ROW.

By Grace Kingsley.

Screen serials are the yellowback literature of the films. The reason is obvious. In order to string a screen story out during twenty-five reels, more or less, the author has to make use of every thrilling incident he has ever heard of or can imagine, because every installment must have as many thrills as possible to the square inch. This frequently results in impossible, improbable, cheap incident, unilluminated by any touch of the higher imaginative quality, of humanity, or of poetry.

Appearance in a serial has rarely added anything to the reputation of an actor, though it has added to his purse. Some pretty actresses, like Pearl White, have found the serial a stepping stone to better things, but few stars of reputation have lent themselves to the "yellowback."

Billy Burke gained nothing for himself by her appearance in "Gloria's Romance," even though the story was who ever proved satisfactory. Arnold Daly, though he played in one serial, is said to have refused a large sum offered him for another. Even those who have been screen actors fight shy of the cheap incident, the raw drama, of the serial. Herbert Rawlinson, and a score of others I could mention have refused to appear again in this form of film output.

If Mrs. Vernon Castle is attempting to use "Patricia" merely as a foothold by which to get into the place in films, she may be justified. There can be no other excuse. It seems incredible that a woman who should have had to resort to such poor dramatic guile as "Patricia," even though she had need to gain experience in the "tricks and manner" of film-acting.

There are certain possibilities in the serial here, but these have been fathomed as yet. It remains the weakest of filmland's younger children, of which the five-reeler is the justest.

Superior.

Oh, for more picture plays like "We Are French," the photoplay at the Superba this week! Here indeed is film footage worth viewing. It is visualization of the story of "The Bugler of Algers," done by Rupert Julian, and deals with the beautiful life of a French soldier.

In the serial, which is a thrilling drama, I know of no film play on view for to these many moons which is threaded with such colorful incident, and so much more human and appealing bit of comedy was ever wrought on the screen than this. The picture is a dusty road of the two feeble, but doughty old soldiers, toward the banquet hall where one of them is to be decorated for his services, refusing their passage money, they declare with tremulous bravery: "No, we'll wait like you soldiers!"

What purer, keener thrill has been felt along our spines than that when Anatole, bidden by the enemy who has captured him to sound the retreat on his bugle, lustily blows the charge instead?

Of the delicate art, the supreme tenderness, and appeal, of Rupert Julian in the latter scenes of his characterization as Anatole, I cannot speak too highly. There is the scene in which his comrade, dead by the way, and himself left to continue the journey to the banquet hall where his friend was to be decorated, he raises his eyes to heaven and consecrating himself to the impersonation of his comrade in order that his friend may not be robbed of the honor due him, he cries: "No, we'll wait like you soldiers!"

And surely there could be no more appealing scene than when, upon his plea, the journey to the banquet hall where his friend was to be decorated, he raises his eyes to heaven and consecrating himself to the impersonation of his comrade in order that his friend may not be robbed of the honor due him, he cries: "No, we'll wait like you soldiers!"

The whole company acquits itself with great credit. The cast includes Kingsley Benedict, Ella Hall, Zoe Ray and others.

Clune's Broadway.

"The Americano," which is Douglas Fairbanks' comedy at Clune's Broadway this week, is a corking entertainment. "The Americano" has substance and is less a sublimated prize fight than most of Fairbanks' pictures. It has, indeed, all the zip and refreshingness of a cocked Cohan farce. The comedy is a hip version of "Blaze Derringer," and tells the adventures of an American youth (Fairbanks) in a hypothetical country known as "Paragonia," the inhabitants of which would appear to be Spanish.

A luminous little comedy it is, with the Americano falling in love with talkative eyes, and helping the father of the owner of a few hundred acres of land, and breaking into an ancient prison by means of a secret underground passage. The Fairbanks smile and elastic muscles serve the usual pur-

Man Wanted Here to Answer Charge of Cashing Forged Drafts and Said to Be Sought by the Police Elsewhere, is Arrested in Texas.

Declared by the police to be a prince of swindlers and an expert forger, Thomas Leonard, owner of a dozen aliases and wanted by the police here, as well as in a number of eastern cities, was arrested yesterday at Fort Worth, Tex. He will be returned to this city as soon as an officer can be sent after him.

According to police detectives, Leonard some time ago cashed two worthless drafts at a local bank. He is alleged by the police to have secured about $100 and then to have fled to Denver. From Denver he was trailed by his trunk to Fort Worth and his arrest followed.

The police stated last night that Leonard cashed much worthless paper at large hotels and banks. He identified himself, they say, by sending a letter from England which informed him that he was just found heir to the Earldom of Wickshire.

ADVERTISING MAN FINDS DIAMOND

(BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE)

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 28.—Three $1000 diamonds were found by an advertising man in an envelope left for him in a hotel room in San Diego. The diamonds were found by Mr. C. K. Jackson, local advertising man, picked up the envelope from the floor of the hotel room and took it to the hotel manager.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams and Mrs. E. A. Orchard, who were in the room when the diamonds were found, were notified of the discovery. The diamonds were found in an envelope left for them by a man who had been in the room for some time.

There are telegrams at the hotel from Mrs. R. A. Orchard, Mrs. C. K. Jackson, Mrs. Bertha Huesman, H. A. Louis, J. Johnson, Mrs. A. Smith, and H. R. Ross.

MUSICAL

ARTISTRY CAPTIVATES

INCREASING POPULARITY FOR JULIA CULP EVIDENT.

By Edwin Schallert.

Having come and gone, Julia Culp, that artist of leadership has left behind her the memory of a voice of pervading warmth, perfectly molded to her needs, and the indication that her popularity will have gained even over what it now seems, by the time of her next visit here.

Her matinee recital Saturday drew forth an audience at Trinity Auditorium that lacked but little of reaching capacity. Two years ago at an afternoon program it was perhaps less two-thirds this size. So Julia Culp is wending her steps along the road whose guidance she reads "public favor." She is not attracting the musical alone, but the general, too.

There is, of course, a certain well-defined boundary line to all Julia Culp sings, and her program did not differ from her previous ones. The one she gave Tuesday evening, French in the substitution of a French group whose Brahms appeared previously. There is such an ecstasy of pure delight in listening to Culp sing what she does sing, however, that she does not easily weary of the certain sameness in her programs.

It was surprising how much she made of that little song "Velchen," by Cornelius, and which the audience required her to repeat Saturday afternoon. Here is something as delicate and fragile as the little flower it relates of. One false touch and the dainty stem is broken. Not a little credit for the beautiful appeal of this number must go to Conrad von Bos for the poetry of his accompaniment.

Julia Culp got astonishingly into the mood of a negro spiritual song, "Deep River," which she gave in her English group. It is far removed from her own native doorstep. Most exquisite, however, was the Indian love song (she rendered this as an encore Tuesday evening), whose curious semi-synopsations haunt even more on a second hearing.

I could say much, too, of her Schubert songs, for they were done with that finish she has made a rare thing, and of the beautiful Massenet numbers, but space forbids. Altogether, though her voice may not be as strong as it once was, her condition as Tuesday evening, there were few flaws to find with the perfection of her renditions.

Conrad von Bos made a return to the aboriginal in his solo number, for it was Mozart's sonata in C major. Simply itself could not be more simple than Mozart in C major. The last two movements were the most interesting, and Bos, although he has not the solo ring to his work, played with delicacy and feeling. He gave Schubert's "Moment Musical" for encore. Rare art in his, in those wonderfully colorful accompaniments.

Deardorff-Shaw Recital.

Ruth Deardorff-Shaw will present a programme of ultra-modern music tomorrow afternoon at the Hotel Huntington in Pasadena. Mrs. Deardorff-Shaw has given much attention to the study of the new music.

New Opera Production.

"One Night in Venice," opera by Chaffarrell, will be given its premiere tonight at the Venice Auditorium. Constantino will sing the principal male role.

RETURNED UNDESIGNED.

(By A. R. MURPHY)

BOSTON, Jan. 28.—Everett Scott, whose defensive work at shortstop was a feature of the playing of the Boston American League baseball club in winning the league and world's championship pennants last season, has returned his 1917 contract unsigned. It is said his new contract offered a smaller salary than he received last year.

FARM BUREAU IDEA IS SPREADING OVER STATE.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE)

REDLANDS, Jan. 28.—In four years' time there will be farm bureaus in forty of the counties of California, and there will be a State membership of 80,000 farmers, according to Dean Thomas F. Hunt, of the College of Agriculture, University of California, who spoke here. He says that the State is back of the farm-bureau and farm-advvisor movement, and that the Federal government is back of the State, and that it is bound to be a big thing.

Dean Hunt told of the work being done in the thirteen counties that now have farm advisors. But

TRAPPED IN CLOSET.

Police Say

After being cornered by three policemen in a closet in the home of William Harris at No. 423 Kenmore avenue early last night, Charles Howard was locked in the City Jail on a charge of burglary.

According to the arresting officers, the prisoner broke his way into the Harris residence through a rear door and was in the act of ransacking the place when discovered by Mr. Harris, who notified the police.

From small pieces of jewelry discovered in Howard's pockets the police learned, they say, that Howard had entered the Harris residence burglarized the home of Mrs. A. Wilson at No. 517 Kenmore avenue. Howard refused to talk.
